new railroad district (RBD) boundaries as of 10 March 1955. The change of RBD boundaries was begun on 1 January 1955 and will not be completed before 1 April 1955. Therefore, it is possible that RBD boundaries still may be subjected to slight modifications. The introduction of the Soviet dispatcher system made the changes necessary. Coordination of boundaries with the predominant traffic pattern was another reason for the changes. It was originally intended to revise RBD boundaries in the fall of 1954. The revision of the boundaries was unexpectedly ordered after Erwin Kramer was made East German Minister of Transport.
